Kensington Trio to Perform Free Concert at Central Library

Piano Trios by Rachmaninoff, Dvorak and Brahms to be Featured

SAN DIEGO – The second concert in the San Diego Public Library fall concert series will be held on Sunday, September 9, 2007 at 2:30 p.m. The concert will feature the Kensington Trio, with Nataalka Kytasty, violin; Yuri Kytasty, cello; and Ronald Morebello, piano. The performance will be held in the Third Floor auditorium of the Central Library, located at 820 E Street in downtown San Diego.

The program will include the Sergei Rachmaninoff's Trio for Piano, Violin and Cello in G minor, No. 1 (Elegiac); Antonin Dvorak's popular "Dumky" Trio for Piano, Violin and Cello in E minor, Opus 90; and Six Hungarian Dances, originally composed by Johannes Brahms for piano, 4 hands, and arranged for piano trio by Doris Geller.

The Kensington Trio has been performing together since 2001 and has appeared in many concerts in the greater San Diego area, as well as each season on the Kensington Concert Series. In July of 2006, the Trio was presented at the annual convention of the Music Teachers' Association of California, held at the Millennium Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles.

Ms. Kytasty has performed with the Kiev Chamber Orchestra and the State TV and Radio Symphony Orchestra. Since immigrating to San Diego, she has taught at the Fairbanks School of Performing Arts and has played with the San Diego Chamber Orchestra; she is active in San Diego as a chamber performer, and teaches students of violin and viola.

Mr. Kytasty was principal cellist with the Kiev Chamber Orchestra for twenty years, and was also a member of both the State Symphony Orchestra, and the Opera and Ballet Theater Orchestra. Now residing in San Diego, he has played with the Orchestra of Baja California, and has been principal cellist with the Mesa and San Diego State University Symphonies. He is active as a freelance chamber musician in San Diego.

Mr. Morebello teaches piano privately in the Kensington area of San Diego, and is a frequent performer and judge across California. He performs in the piano, four hands team of Morebello and Rodewald, and with the Kensington Trio. He is also the originator and chairperson of the Kensington Concert Series, which presents concerts in the homes of Kensington.

The concert is free and open to the public. Free parking is available at the lot adjacent to the Library on Broadway and 8th, courtesy of Five Star Parking. In addition, parking meters are not enforced on Sundays, and other pay parking lots are available in the vicinity of the library.
